Correspondence

- The Wingbusters Model Airplane Club of Halifax, MA will hold a Cub event in the near future. Details are on their web site. They will also hold a Warbird fest in August.

Unfinished Business

- Jared Roy was unanimously voted in as the club's 35th member
- The recent FunFly was well attended and quite successful. A total of $51.00 was earned for the Treasury. Only Carlos Costa lost a plane. Discussion ensued about devices to locate lost planes.
- Discussion ensued about a cover/shelter for the new field frequency board.
- Andy Argenio is setting up a web site to track quad copter legislation and prevent infringement on RC flying in general.

New Business

- Ted Brito reported on the upcoming FloatFly. The pond level is extremely high and the parking area has been improved. No radio impound is planned; just a sign-in sheet. The safety officer will inspect all planes. A $10.00 landing fee will be assessed.
- A long-term capital improvement fund was discussed for future expenditures for field improvement and equipment purchases. Potential increase of annual membership dues was discussed as a means of financing these expenditures.
- The YMCA Family Fun Day is September 21st.
- The UMASS Dartmouth Family Fun Day will be held in October.
